Knights of Columbus Chalice Dedication

A chalice and paten dedicated to the late Senior Knight Eugene ‘Gene’ Amoe was passed to his daughter Geralyn Fox, a member of St. Columbkille Parish on Tuesday, August 20th at the 5:30 p.m. Mass. They were both used for the first time in that Mass. After the Mass, the Knights of Columbus held a ceremonial exchange of the chalice and paten to Ms. Fox. She decided to pass on these precious objects to Hillcrest Grand Lodge for use in the weekly services held there on Thursday mornings and on other Holy Days. Jim Dennis, a Lodge resident, transported the gifts to Hillcrest in Gene’s honor.

Reeson’s Ramblings: Vocations Highlight—The Priesthood

We are so proud to have two seminarians for the Archdiocese of Omaha come from our parish, Minh Tran and Joshua Richards. We asked both of them a couple questions about their journey towards the priesthood.

1. When did you realize God was calling you to explore the priesthood? How did you react?

Minh: When I was fourteen years old, I decided I wanted to become a priest after seeing my pastor serving as a good shepherd to his parish, and I felt called to do the same. This calling was always on my heart, though I spent years working in accounting and statistics to help support my family while we were living in Vietnam. Once my brothers and sisters were done with school and began working, I was free to pursue my vocation by studying at the St. Paul Nguyen Van Binh Institute of Theology. After years of studies, I attended a Come-And-See retreat to learn more about and experience what it’s like to be priest. I began following my call to the priesthood with the Order of the Holy Cross in the Philippines, who then sent me to Brazil to learn theology and philosophy as part of what you call Novitiate, or the first years of preparation for the priesthood. Eventually, I left that order so I could become a diocesan priest and travelled to America to pursue that at the Assumption Seminary in San Antonio, TX. Having finished my second year of studying theology, I am now taking a pastoral year, where I get to work and learn at a parish and be a part of that parish’s activities.

Josh: The thought of being a priest did not cross my mind until I was a senior in high school in 2016. The Lord called me in a time when I began to question what life was all about and what my role in the world was. I had thought about being a police officer like my step-dad, but in my failed attempts at reaching for my own calling, the Lord brought the priesthood into my hands. He did this especially through the youth group here at St. Columbkille, which awakened all sorts of desires in my heart for service to the Church. When God invited me to become a priest, I dove head-first into learning what it meant to be Catholic. This consisted of attending daily Mass, spending time in front of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, praying the Rosary, and learning how to serve with Fr. Vogel. However, the Lord called me to serve at the UNO Newman Center before entering the seminary. During this time, I became involved with the daily life of the Church, but I was also very tempted to run away from God's call. Despite this and my failure to listen to the Lord, He did not let go of my heart. I was His forever.

2. What would you say to other young people considering a calling to the priesthood or religious life e.g. joining a religious order like the Jesuits or the Little Sisters of the Poor?

Minh: Continue praying about what your vocation might be and be open.

Josh: To all young people in the Church, I would say: rest in the God’s embrace. God has a plan for you, a plan which will bring you so much joy amidst any suffering or trial. Do not be afraid to give everything to God and to sit in silence every day with God in prayer. God wants you above all things! Will you just let God love you today?

We will be launching Abundant, our new online giving platform, next weekend, September 7th-8th. Please watch our website, social media and bulletin between now and then for updates.
Stewardship Reflection
Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.” Luke 14:13 -14

We have a difficult time with the concept of giving without expecting something in return. Even when we give to charity we often want something in return – a raffle ticket, a dinner, a chance to play golf or our name in print. Yet, as Christian stewards, we need to remember that the true reward for our giving awaits us in heaven.

Fighting Hunger with Catholic Charities
Almost 13% of Nebraskans don’t know where their next meal is coming from, and nearly one in six children is living in poverty. Catholic Charities’ food pantries provide food to individuals and families lacking the resources to satisfy basic nutritional needs for themselves and their families. They also provide delivery to homebound seniors, and mobile pantries reaching rural areas and those with transportation barriers. Last year, over 5,700 people received aid through these services. To donate online or to learn more, please visit comaha.org.

Help Renovating House on Shamrock St.
As good Stewards of God’s gifts, our parishioners have always been very generous in offering their time, talent and treasure. We are now in need of some skilled and unskilled laborers for a renovation project on a house we own on Shamrock St. We are looking for volunteers to help us with concrete block repairs, installing two egress windows, some electrical work and a variety of other general labor. Please contact the Parish Office at 402-339-3285 if you can contribute your skills and a few hours of your time. A member of our crew will then contact you to plug you in when and where needed.

Goodwill Donations for Eagle Scout Project
Parishioner Josh Bousquet is collecting donations for Goodwill as his Eagle Scout project. Josh is a member of troop 359. He is looking for new or gently used clothing, shoes, books and toys. He will be collecting these in the Social Hall of the church after all Masses this weekend.

Supporting the St. Pope John Paul II Newman Center
If you would like to help financially support the Saint Pope John Paul II Newman Center at the University of Nebraska Omaha campus, and you received a contribution envelope in the mail, please feel free to place this in the collection basket at an upcoming weekend Mass. Or you can put your contribution in a regular St. Columbkille envelope marked John Paul II Newman Center and drop it in the collection.

Pave the Way Update

Our East lot is now completed except for a little landscaping and a few touch-ups. We’re working closely with our contractors and combining the last two phases of construction together; the new west entry and the north courtyard, to try to speed up the completion. We hope this helps to make up for some of the weather-related issues that have impacted the project’s timeline. Please note that while this work is underway, there is limited/restricted access to the North and West doors of the Church. We are blessed to have so many who are working hard to make our campus functional and beautiful. In the long-run, this temporary inconvenience will all be worth it so let’s be positive and remember that patience is a virtue.
