Reeson’s Ramblings: God is Love

Throughout my life I have often heard, “God is Love!”

When I was a youngster in grade school growing up in Fremont, NE, I had a best friend by the name of Mike. He lived close to St. Patrick’s, where we went to school. I usually rode my bike to school and would stop by his home on the way to pick him up. I was delighted when he and his family moved just three blocks from where I lived. We could then ride all the way to school together.

One Friday, Mike’s dog, Flicka, went missing. Mike and I scoured the neighborhood calling for Flicka, to no avail. Mike and I then posted signs around our neighborhood on Saturday asking for people to keep an eye out for the dog. I think Mike might have even offered a dollar as a reward. Finally on Sunday afternoon Flicka was found in Mike’s old neighborhood and returned. Flicka must have gotten lost and confused, thinking he still lived in the old neighborhood. Mike didn’t yell at the dog or want to punish the dog but was absolutely delighted to have him home.

Mike’s feelings for Flicka are like the kind of love that God has for us. God loves us totally and unconditionally. Even if we wander away and live in sin, God never stops loving us and rejoices when we return home.

We hear many stories in the scriptures, such as the one about the prodigal son and the one about the lost sheep, which remind us of God’s love. God loved us first. His love is not something that we earn, deserve or have a right to, but is, rather, a free gift. The story of Zacchaeus that we heard at Mass a couple of weeks ago is an excellent example of how God’s love works and brings about a conversion of heart.

Zacchaeus was a tax collector and known to be a sinner. He was curious and wanted to see Jesus, so he climbed a tree to get a better view. When Jesus saw him in the tree he desired to be part of his life and said he would come to his house for dinner that day. Jesus didn’t say, “If you first turn from your sin and clean up your act I will love you.” Instead, Jesus first loved Zacchaeus, even though he was criticized for hanging out with sinners and tax collectors. It was that total and unconditional love by Jesus that brought about the conversion of heart in Zacchaeus, which is one of the four pillars of Stewardship. As part of his conversion, Zacchaeus gave half of his possessions to the poor. Anyone he had cheated he repaid four times over.

When we realize the free gift of God’s love for us, our lives, like the life of Zacchaeus, cannot help but be changed as we continue to grow as His disciples.

Pax,
Fr. Dave
Stewardship Reflection
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.” ~2 Thessalonians 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don’t go around bragging about it, but through their actions and words, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that come from actively living one’s faith, and other people desire that very same joy in their own lives. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others have with our Catholic faith.

Archdiocesan Appeal

It is currently that time of year, time for the Archdiocesan Appeal, which serves as the annual way to raise funds that support all the wonderful and much-needed work the Archdiocese of Omaha does. You should have already received pledge cards in the mail, and look for info on our church bulletin boards and in the info racks. I encourage everyone to participate and send in their pledges—even if it’s just to pray for the Appeal, which is a box you can check on the pledge card. A significant portion of our parish generously donated last year and we’d like to continue with our stewardship support. ~Fr. Dave

St. Columbkille Blood Drive

The need for blood is constant and only volunteer donors can fulfill that need for patients in our community. Nationwide, someone needs a unit of blood every 2 to 3 seconds, and most of us will need blood in our lifetime. By donating blood, you can help save lives! There will be a blood drive this Sunday, November 17th, from 7:00 a.m. to noon in the Sacred Heart Center. Please visit our website to schedule an appointment to donate that day. For more information, call Joe Bixler at 712-328-1841.

Gift Giving Weekend

Our parish will again be participating, along with Heartland Family Services, in the Sarpy County Christmas Center. Sarpy County agencies will identify families in need and we, along with other churches and organizations, will help to meet the needs of those families with our donations of toys and clothing. Last year, the Center helped 230 families.

The weekend of November 23rd – 24th, we will be decorating our “Giving Tree.” It will be located in the church entryway. The colorful ornaments will list new toys, clothing and gift certificates that we’ll collect for the Sarpy County Christmas Center.

We will also have ornaments listing food and personal items that we’ll take to the Tri-City Food Pantry. Please take as many ornaments as you wish and then bring the gifts you purchase back to the church on Gift Giving Weekend, December 7th – 8th. Watch the bulletin for additional information over the next few weeks. If you have any questions, please call Becky or Pat Grant at (402) 592-1103.

Money Matters
Many of us over the age of 70 may not know that we can make a donation of all or a portion of our Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from our retirement account to tax exempt charities like St. Columbkille. Using a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) is a great way for folks over 70 1/2 years old with an IRA and a need to withdraw funds to meet an RMD, to contribute to St. Columbkille’s operating fund or Capital Campaign. A QCD is generally a nontaxable distribution!

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT CHARITABLE IRA GIVING
• What You Can Give - contributions from traditional IRAs
• Age Requirement - you must be 70 1/2 years old or older when the distribution is made

Fun Times Around the Bonfire with Fr. Dave

Parishioner Mary Jo Madej and five of her children and their families enjoyed a fall evening around Fr. Dave’s backyard fire pit, making S’mores and spending quality time with each other. The Madejs are incredibly involved at St. Columbkille via singing in the choir, teaching Religious Education, helping out with Ceili, school fundraisers, the Finance Council, and the Building and Grounds Committee. Mary Jo also helps clean the rectories. Thank you for all your stewardship, Madejs!
